

A 3x10 grid of squares. The first three columns are full. The fourth column has the middle square missing. The fifth column is full. The sixth column has the middle square missing. The seventh column is full. The eighth column has the middle square missing. The ninth column is full. The tenth column has the middle square missing.