- A blank template for a paper bag. It features a central rectangular area with rounded corners, outlined by a dashed line. This central area is flanked by two vertical strips of plaid pattern, also outlined by dashed lines. At the bottom, there is a wide, rectangular plaid patterned base, also outlined by a dashed line. The entire template is surrounded by a border of short, vertical black lines, indicating where to cut. In the bottom right corner of the plaid base, there is a small icon of a pair of scissors and a small square, likely indicating a starting point or a specific cut line.
